5. General Business . • Greg has raised concerns about WWCC checks for construction workers coming on site to build the new block. He wants to know what procedures and guidelines the DoE has to keep workers to have no contact or interactions with our students. Daryl is going to provide the guidelines we will follow when construction happens on a school site. 1. 1 st Rafay Siddique 2 nd Nevine Yousef
6. Reports • Principal's report – Thanking everyone with supporting us during the difficult time of Nick Wenban's passing. The support and understanding helped us cope with Nick's passing. We are asking everyone to be sensitive and supportive with Rob Craig as he takes on Nick's role. The warmth of the community was extraordinary. The new fly though of the new block has now been down. Hawkesbury meeting has restarted again. Hawkesbury is negotiating with shared space, name is sitting with the minister, and building construction at this site is still on track. Demountables are on site. Panels will be established where the historical items of Hurlstone go to. . Asset management is looking at WWCC and child protection for construction people on site. On the 13 th June Dr Tim Soutphommasane, commissioner for Race Discrimination is visiting the school and talking to the students. It will be an open forum and he will speak to the students for approximately 30minutes. Afterwards the students get to ask questions, the questions from the students will be submitted beforehand. The royal Easter show, most successful 47 awards. We did a installation art piece at the show and we have won it for the third year in a row. We had 50 kids working on the installation. We have being invited to go to the South Australia Agriculture Show. We brought our Suffolk from a breeder from SA and raised them so well that the breeder has had inquiries to now purchase his own Suffolk. Karen Johnson and Jeff Doolan and Greg McAlpin did a brilliant job. We are having a NESSA registration of the boarding school.

Jill Stewart has requested a 5 minute bell so that parents have only 5 minutes opportunity to talk with teachers at PT interviews. Questions about continuation of the movement of Hurlstone to Hawkesbury. This includes ongoing issues of presenting our school at boarding expos.
